

Mayfly

These tiny creatures are very delicate - their homes are constantly under threat from pollution and changes in the environment

- You can find the nymph (baby) in fresh water, in streams; under rocks, in plants or mud,
- Mayflies hatch in Spring but not always in May, in huge numbers,
- When they hatch from the water, Mayflies live for only one day,
- They have up to seven pairs of gills and usually have three tails.